

Where you need to be

i'm coming out of the dark and into the future.
Getting rid of the past that used to hurt.
i'm looking for some others ready to inspire & recreate got the reasons to learn and wonders to create.

i'm coming at once to the world.
How great does it feel,
just to know you're where you need to be?

i'm coming now to be heard and ready to begin again.
nothing negative can touch me - success is in the palm of my hand.

How great does it feel
just to know you're where you need to be?

i'm coming now to be heard.
i have everything and nothing to lose.
just like everyone else - just like you.

i'm coming at once to the world.
How great does it feel
just to know you're where you need to be?
